My auntie who lives in Iran and is a teacher of an art/graphic class, apologised to her own students, that they cannot draw anything that has to do with a dog, cat, and or to draw hair in any of the portraits because its "haram" The way iran has ideologised Islam as a whole religion including some of the false beliefs, they back it up with the Quran. However the way that this was portrayed is that the strict scholars that take words from the holy book of Quran interpret it way differently than its meant to be. Which again shows the dictatorship. Blaming their actions on Quran and Islam in general.

THE LAW of DRAWING in ISLAM

1. IF the drawing is the picture of God other than Allah The Almighty, such as idol / image and etc, therefore, the muslim artist is gentile (kafir). The artwork is mostly threaten by Allah as spoken by Rasulullah SAW.;

riwayat Imam Muslim
 Speech by Imam at-Tabari;
 "The artist that is pointed here is the artist who draw God(s) to be praise other than Allah"
2. IT IS FORBIDDEN to draw something against the Creation of Allah, feeling like can create the same LIKE Allah's creation or more. These kind of people are heavily been threaten by Rasulullah S.A.W as he spoke;

3. IT is also FORBIDDEN to draw malaika (malaikat, angel), the messengers and the noble sahaba (sahabah, companions) because worried the arts will lower their honourable. And it will bring the fake stuff because there is none of them alive since now to be seen.
